THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

There were 3,805 dog tags sold up to yes-A leaky water pipe on Tenth street, near R street, is complained of.

Susan Crawford was sent by Judge Suell to the workhouse for sixty days yesterday for stealing a pocketbook.

The case of Elizabeth Jackson, charged with stealing $12 from Mrs. Mary Hall, was dismissed in the police court yesterday.

The back order, recently issued by the commissioners and published in Tark Repun-LICAN, will be put into stringent operation

The president of the Washington Gas Light company has asked the commissioners for a permit to run an independent sower from the company's works to the river.

The funeral of Mrs. Martha A. Fitzhugh, daughter of the late Daniel Carroll, one of Washington's earliest citizens, occurs Friday morning at St. Peter's church. A band of belated gypsics are encamped on the Bladensburg road. Several female mem-bers of the party went about the streets yes-terday in their picturesque garbs soliciting alms and tolling fortunes.

The commissoners have notified A. Cleeves that they cannot build a connecting sewer at Park Place, as such a connection would throw a quantity of rain water into an overcharged sewer not intended to receive it.

W. S. Whitford was arrested Tuesday night for forging the name of Mr. Wash B. Will-iams to a check, which he attempted to get cashed at the National Bank of the Republic. Whitford already has several indictments against him for the same charge.

In a few days the Philadelphia, Willmingon and Baltimore railway company will send a voucher in fares to the commissioners for the amount paid the gas company for supplying gas along the line of the Baltimore and Potomac tracks, in a few days.

Building permits were issued yesterday to Warner & Co. to build even brick dwellings corner of Nineteenth and E streets northwest, to cost $7,000, and J. A. Hofman to build a market store on D, between Eleventh and Tweifth streets, northwest, to cost $400.

At the last meeting of the board of man-agers of the sixth subdivision of Associated Charities the Roy. Alex. Kent presented for use of this subdivision $25.41, being the Thanksgiving collection of the joint meeting of the Universalist and Unitarian congrega-tions. Mr. J. B. Sleman presented $10.31 as one-fourth of the Thanksgiving collection of the joint meeting of four congregations at the Fourth Presbyterian church. Thanks of the board were voted for these donations.

ADVENT WEEKS.

The Religious Preparation for Christmas Begun in the Anglican and Catho-He Churches.

The season of the advent which began on Sunday last is observed in the Protestant Episcopal and Roman Catholic church es as a praparatory time for the Feast of the Nativity of Christ. The season of four weeks begins on the Sunday nearest St. Audrew's day. The institution of this season dates back to the early conturies of Christianity, and at first observed in the same penitential manner first observed in the same penitential manner as Lent; but about the tenth century the time was shortened to include the four Sundays preceding Christmas. The church of Milan observes to this day the an cient rite of a six weeks' advent. Although not as a rigorous a time of religious exercise as Lent, when Episcopalinus and Catholics generally abstain from amusements and practice religious acts of mortification, advent is regarded and observed in the churches as a season of some relaxation from the pleasures of the world; hence, orthodox churchmen abstain to some degree from the gayetics of the fall Towles's Fine Furniture. One of the most enterprising business houses in Washington is the superb furniture establishment of Mr. H. O. Towles, on Pennsylvania avenue, between Tenth and Eleventi streets. Persons who have never visited the streets. Persons who have never visited the great warehouses of the west, from which quarter comes a large proportion of the finest furniture, and from which Mr. Towles purchases direct, have little idea of the skill required in the choice of superior material and patterns in order to select the best and latest. The establishment of Mr. Towles resembles the best Chicago warehouse in variety and The establishment of Mr. Towles resembles the best Chicago warehouses in variety and excellence, and in his large building, filled from top to bottom, is every style of furniture suited to the wants of the millionaire or the humblest citizen. An elevator run by a gas engine furnishes communication to each of the three floors, so that visitors may, with little exertion, make a thorough inspection of this model house. Mr. Towles has hosts of friends in business and private life, and their number attest his fair dealing, and that honesty and enterprise pay in the furniture business in Washington as well as anywhere else. where else.

Our Mineral Storehouses.
The report of Albert Williams, jr., geolo gist, upon the mineral resources of the United States shows that the total value of the metal-lic products of the United States in 1882, was $219,756,004. The total value of the non-metallic mineral products, such as coal, petroleum, lime, building stone, salt, &c., was $226. 156,406, making a grand total of $445,912,410 as the value of all the minerals produced in the United States last year. The report con-tains an approximately complete list, arranged by states, of the places of the United States where useful minerals have been found in quantities great enough to pay for working, and a statement to show whether or not such meneral resources are now being utilized.

who was arrested Sunday last, was tried in the police court yesterday. Sandford made a full confession, revealing the modus operandi of the awindle. He admitted having stolen $165 from Michael Flynn, corner Twenty-first and H streets northwest; $70 from Mary Broderick; $7 from Mary McDonald, and stated be had his hand on $700 in the store of Mary Plane on Fast Capital streets but was Mrs. Phalen on East Capitol street, but was "broken up." He waived as examination of the cases and was sent to the grand jury.
